CALL FROM PHILIPPINES MARKS MOTHER'S DAY

One of the most interesting of the Mother's Day telephone calls was a conversation between Ernest J. McSorley, in the Philippines, and his mother, Mrs. Emma G. McSorley, in Brooklyn, N. Y. Mother's Day was drawing to a close in Brooklyn when the telephone in the McSorley home rang, and a voice 10,000 miles away said, "Hello, mother, this is Ernest." It was one of the most distant of the many Mother's Day greetings.

Mr. Sherman T. Blake of San Francisco was in Menlo Park during the week looking after his business interests.

Miss Lulu Fishbeck of Seattle, Washington, is spending the Holidays with her aunt, Mrs. Zimmerman, on Menlo avenue.

J. H. Beardsley has fully recovered from an operation o nhis eye at the Letterman Hospital and is at home making a garden.

Western Pacific Abandons Redwood Niles Program

The Western Pacific California Railroad Company, subsidiary of The Western Pacific Railroad Company, has written the Interstate Commerce Commission that it has been compelled to relinquish the plan of constructing an all-rail line between San Francisco and Niles, via Redwood City, for the reason that the Western Pacific, the parent company, is unable to finance the project.

In view of this, the Western Pacific California Railroad Company stated that it had been deemed best for all concerned not to ask for an extension of the time in which to commence construction of the line, which, under the permit, must be begun by January 1, 1934.

In its letter to the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Western Pacific California Railroad Company said in part:

"When the application in this matter was filed with the Commission, viz., July 19, 1928, the undersigned, organized as a subsidiary by The Western Pacific Railroad Company had every expectation of financing the contemplated construction through the issuance and sale of its stock and other securities to its parent company.

"The economic depression which set in in the autumn of 1929 and which after four years is still afflicting business in the United States has affected the Western Pacific as it has all other transportation agencies.

"Due to these depressed conditions the Westery Pacific Railroad Company has been unable to finance itself or be placed in a position to purchase the securities of the undersigned, its subsidiary, which would be necessary in order to finance the extention."

In connection with this announcement, the following statement was made today at the general offices of the Western Pacific in San Francisco:

"It is wth deep regret that the Western Pacific finds that it must forego the plan to build the San Francisco-Niles line which it believes would be of great benefit to the territory it would serve as well as to itself.

"Although the economic depression has brought increasing difficulties, the Western Pacific has, until this time, steadfastly adhered to its plan of buildng this line, and has successively applied for extensions of time in which to commence construction, hoping that the situation would so change as to enable it to see its way clear to finance the undertaking.

"This decision has been reached with great reluctance, and the company and its officers desire at this time again to express their deep gratitude to the communities, public bodies and individuals who have encouraged the project and who have lent of their time and effort in its behalf."

PERMALLOY IS USED IN MANY SUBMARINE CABLES

The total length of submarine telegraph cable at present in operation utilizing permalloy, the metal alloy invented at the Bell Telephone Laboratories, is about 16,000 miles. Of this mileage the cables actually terminating in the United States account for only 3,700 miles, but cables connecting with these and others carrying traffic from the United States account for most of the balance. None of these cables is owned or operated by the Bell System.

True Tales about the Telephone

A CHINAMAN'S CHANCE

One day a Chinaman came into the telephone exchange at Caldwell, Idaho, and called up another Chinaman in Oregon. When he got through talking, he marched straight out of the door into the street. "Wait a minute," the cashier called to him, "you haven't paid for the call."

The Chinaman went right on, saying never a word. The manager overtook him.

"No gettem—no pay!" was the Chinaman's answer for the toll call. "No gettem—no pay!"

It finally developed, after much language, that the Idaho Chinaman had called the Chinaman in Oregon and talked with him to try to hire him to come to Caldwell to work as a cook in his restaurant. The Oregon Chinaman had refused the job. For that reason, the Caldwell Chinaman thought he shouldn't pay for the call. His logic was, "No gettem—no pay!"

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Sending a suit 1600 miles to be dry cleaned, in response to a small advertisement in the classified telephone directory, probably establishes a new record.

This actually occurred recently when the Holland Cleansers and Dyers of Maryland, Inc., located at Baltimore, received a letter from Mayaguez, Puerto Rico, informing them that a suit was being sent by parcel post to them for dry cleaning.

The letter stated that the company had been selected from the Baltimore classified telephone directory.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN TO MEET THURSDAY P. M.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church will meet at the church on next Thursday afternoon, December 28, at 2:30. Mrs. H. C. King and Mrs. W. L. Bone will be hostesses. All members and friends are cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Connor, formerly of Seattle, Washington, have taken the Clough apartment at 1050 Laurel street.

BOYS WITH RIFLES GET WARNING—DON'T SHOOT TRAFFIC SIGNS ANYMORE

In an interview with Police Commissioner E. J. Crane, a representative of the Menlo Park Recorder was surprised to learn that boys from this city had been shooting up the traffic signs erected by the California State Automobile Association, and in some instances have taken them down and destroyed them.

Police Commissioner Crane stated that in the future anyone found using these signs for a target or in anyway tampering with them would be arrested and place in jail. He said, "Please tell the boys of this city, through your paper, that we will not stand for this kind of foolishness, and any one caught using these signs for targets or taking them down, or otherwise mutilating them will be promptly arrested."

City Judge Geo. Montel intimated that he knew how to take care of this class of petty crime, and that it would go hard with any one who was brought before him.

"TINY" ORDERS FRIDAY DRILL FOR INDIANS

"Tiny" Thornhill will lose no time in getting his Stanford players back in shape for the Rose Bowl meeting with Columbia.

With the close of classes tomorrow, the Stanford players will report for practice and the Stanford coach intimated Tuesday that it'll be a "tough one."

Thornhill's chief problem, outside of preparing a defense for the Columbia plays, is the conditioning of his athletes after their layoff for final examinations. The players have taken a little time off their studies to play touch football during the last few days and have been able to remain in fair condition. They have not had a scrimmage since the "Big Game" and Thornhill is anxious to find out how they stand up against the tough going.

Further drills are on the schedule for this afternoon prior to the team's departure for Pasadena. Workouts at the Old Tournament Park will be resumed next Monday.

Friends of Thornhill in the East have come to his aid with information about the Columbia team. They warn the Stanford coach not to take the Lions too lightly, many of them rating Lou Little's team as strong as Princeton at the close of the season.

WHEREABOUTS OF WOMAN SOUGHT BY PLOICE CHIEF

Information concerning the whereabouts of Miss Eleanor Welsh was being sought this week by Chief of Police Thomas J. Kearney of this city.

Her father, Arthur L. Welsh, a coast guardsman formerly of Pt. Reyes, died suddenly in San Pedro, according to a telegram received by Chef Kearney from that city. He was asked to locate Miss Welch. She or anyone knowing she lives is requested by Chiief Kearney to communicate with him at once.

The Bazaar given by the American Legion Auxiliary in the Legion Hall on Oak Grove avenue last week was much enjoyed and a nice sum was realized from the sale of the various articles displayed.

Local Firemen Will Distribute Gifts

Following a custom that has been established for some years the local fire department has been busy for several months making and repairing toys for the Merry Christmas time, to cheer those little folks who otherwise would be without the things so necessary to the childish heart

This year the fire boys under the direction of Fire Chief Cuff have done an unusually good job. What they lacked in the way of toys they procured material and make, and when you made made you mean just that.

It would surprise most of the local residents to view what has been manufactured, in the way of toys, at the fire house. These toys will be distributed by the firemen to needy families, in time so that the little ones will find a full stocking when they climb out of bed on the "morning of mornings," Christmas.

In their rols of Santa Claus they will not forget any child who is in their district, and whose parents cannot afford to purchase something to fill the Christmas stocking, provided the names and addresses have been turned in.

Good luck to the Menlo Park Fire Department, the boys sure do things right when they start out, from playing Santa Claus to entertaining, and putting out the most stubborn of fires.

TELEPHONE MANNERS—Colorado Springs, Colo., Gazette

The telephone can be your friend or your enemy—depending upon the way you treat it. Be surly, sharp, impatient in your telephone conversations and you'll find yourself disliked by persons who don't even know you—who have never even seen you. Be pleasant, accommodating, respectful in these same conversations and you'll be doing yourself a favor and creating an atmosphere of temperance and refinement in your home.

Don't answer "Hello" sharply, then bite off a brief, impatient "No, he's not here," and slam the receiver. Take it easy. A soft, pleasant "Hello" and a brief, accommodating explanation: "I'm sorry, he's gone to the movies. Would you like to leave your name or a message?"

Remember, just because the caller can't see you or can't be seen is no reason to be discourteous. How do you feel when you call a friend whose sister or brother or servant barks a surly, impatient reply, then hangs up as though a door were being slammed in your face?

A caller, you know, gets an immediate impression of your home from the way the telephone is answered. Why not try to make it a good one?

CITY OFFICIALS VISTS BIG PRISON AT SAN QUENTIN

Last Saturday Police Commissioner E. J. Crane and Chief of Police Thomas J. Kearney paid a visit to the big State's Prison at San Quentin, and spent several hours in the inspection of the big plant.

After spending a half hour or more in conversation with Warden Holohan, who is an old friend of Commissioner Crane, the visitors from Menlo Park were shown over the jute mill, through the mess hall bake shop and the cell blocks, as well as viewing the recreational activities of the inmates of the big house. It being Saturday, no work was being done at the prson, the men enjoying one of the many forms of recreation allowed which range from singing to baseball and football.

CAPITOL NEWS

(By WNU Service)

In an effort to show voters that sub-departments in the State governmental make-up are of value to California, various reports of activities are frequently submitted.

The latest of this type is from C. J. Carey, chief of the State division of market enforcement, who reports that $17,657.81 was recovered from 128 California growers during the month of September, through the adjustment of controversies between growers and shippers and commission merchants.

Joining the trek of State officials who find business in the East is Miss Mabel E. Gillis, State librarian, who left last week to attend the convention of the American Library Association and the National Association of State Libraries in Chicago. She expects to be gone two weeks.

Governor Rolph has been ordered, since his recent illness, to only work half a day at his office. Now he works but 12 hours, his friends say, splitting the day into 12 hours work.

Reports that Warden James B. Holohan of San Quentin Prison contemplated resigning because of ill-health have been branded as "ill-founded poppycock," by his friends. It was thought the rumor started when capitol gossip had it that a group of southern politicians were after the scalp of Court Smith, Folsom warden.

Repeal of the 18th amendment, expected before Christmas, will for all practical purposes nullify California's tax of 2 cents a barrel on beer. The state board of equalization concedes this. The tax is on beverages with alcoholic content of 3.2 per cent or under. All beer makers need to do is raise the percentage.

Attorney general U. S. Webb, however, feels that the "courts will consider that the controlling factor—that the purpose of the legislature is to tax beer" will allow the state to pick the $750,000 tax plum.

Legal restrictions on the alcoholic content of beer are not necessary for some brewers. Dr. Giles S. Porter, state director of public health, finds that a few brewers nave been so careful not to break the 3.2 per cent law that they have been making beer with no more than 1 per cent alcoholic content.

SEQUOIA DIVIDES GAMES WITH COMMERCE FRIDAY

The Sequoia Union high school cage teams divided a double header with Commerce last Friday when the Varsity won 28-18 and the visitors won the lightweight game 13-7.

"Pinky" Garcia made 11 points to capture high point honors. He was closely followed by Charles Bendeich with 7 points. Bob Krogh wtih n tallies and Howard Van Orden with 5 finished the scoring for the Cherokees.

The lightweight game was a low scoring affair, and only the inability of the Commerce 30's to hit the basket saved the Indians from a good trouncing. George Zehender led the scoring with 6 points, followed by Jack Abbott with 1.

The next day the Indians lost two games to Lowell by scores of 34-18 and 14-11 in the 130's.

SEQUOIA STUDENTS GIVE XMAS FOOD TO NEEDY

Seventy-two holiday boxes, containing not only food, but gifts as well, will be given to needy families of Redwood City by Sequoia Union high school students, according to a list made up by the San Mateo County Social Service commission, the Red Cross, and the Unemployment Relief Committee.

Inexpensive gifts for small children, Christmas greens, and red berries will accompany the foods, which will consist of vegetables, fruits, groceries, and many little extras, such as puddings and desserts.

"Sequoia students have remembered the needy famles of the community since 1926," states Miss Angelina Burns, Red Cross representative, "and with their generosity this year as usual, are helping make a Merry Christmas for the community.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Montgomery of Redwood City have moved to Menlo Park and are living at 200 Menlo avenue, corner of Doyle street.

Seasonal Buying

THERE is a wider spread in winter between the prices of fresh and canned vegetables than in summer. So why not take advantage of the lower prices of canned foods in comparison to fresh and buy more canned foods in winter than you do in summer? This offers a seasonal opportunity to economize. One good way to do this is to combine fresh and canned vegetables in the same dish. They go perfectly well together as you will find out if you try one of the following recipes:

Mashed Mixed Vegetables: Simmer the contents of an 11-ounce can diced carrots for a few minutes, and drain. Boil five medium potatoes, and drain. Cut three medium onions in dice, boil and drain. Combine the three hot vegetables, mash thoroughly, season with salt, pepper, two tablespoons butter and two or three tablespoons cream, or enough to moisten. Beat fluffy with a fork, and serve hot. Serves eight.

An Appetizing Dish

Mixed Vegetable Appetizer: Chill separately the contents of an 8-ounce can diced carrots, an 8-ounce can diced beets, one-third cup diced celery, and one-third cup diced cucumber; drain off any juice and toss lightly together. Fill small cocktail glasses or cup-shaped lettuce leaves with this mixture. Beat one-half cup cream, add one-half cup chili sauce, one tablespoon mayonnaise, one tablespoon capers and a few grains of salt. Have very cold. Pile this sauce on top of vegetables. Serves eight.*

Time Lost is Money Lost

It costs money to be sick. You see it directly if your pay envelope is short. You lose out on some important work if you live on a farm or if you are one of the few who are not docked for lost time. You can't afford to show up on the job unless you are feeling fit. The boss wants results—not excuses.

How many times do Gas on Stomach, Headache, Sour Stomach, "That Tired Feeling," That "Morning After" Feeling, Neuralgic, Rheumatic, Sciatic, Muscular or Periodic Pains keep you at home or interfere with your doing a full day's work?

All these troubles are caused or made worse by too much acid in your body. To correct this condition take

ALKA-SELTZER

The New Pain Relieving, Alkalizing, Effervescent Tablet.

It is called Alka-Seltzer because it makes a sparkling alkaline drink, and as it contains an analgesic (Acetyl-Salicylate) it first relieves the pain of everyday ailments and then by restoring the alkaline balance corrects the cause when due to excess acid. Alka-Seltzer is pleasant to take, harmless, non-laxative.

Why don't you try it? Get a drink at your drug store soda fountain for a nickel. Buy a package for home use.

Large Package 60 cents
